135 perry street, apt. 11 b/n washington & greenwich rsvp to amber at amber.ott@gmail.com book launch-sign-donate ever run into an ex looking like crap? honey, you must read this book! by now you may have heard about perfect on paper, an award-winning romantic comedy written by dg alum maria murnane (gamma- uc berkeley). maria has shared her inspiring “never give up” story with many dg chapters and alumnae groups around the country, and she’s extremely grateful to the dg community for supporting her efforts to achieve her dream of becoming a published author. it will be a no-host bar, but the owner is kindly providing some tasty appetizers at no charge. maria will have the new version of the book on hand to sign, and she is donating a dollar for each book sold to rare cancer research. bring friends!

thursday, february 18th

6pm – 9pm

kellari’s parea, 36 east 20th street email connie at conniekwok@gmail.com for more info dinner club

the folks at cafeteria have honed a surefire formula: amped-up comfort food plus an unquestionably hip chelsea setting. It is also a prime people-watching location.

GET INVOLVED

annual fundraiser

nycdg is seeking someone to plan our annual fundraiser, a night for sight! experience with party/event planning is helpful, but not required. it's held every year in may, and is a happy hour with a silent auction to raise money for the delta gamma foundation and a scholarship for the zeta theta chapter at columbia university.

email annie at anniegoodman81@yahoo.com for more details alumnae volunteers needed at zt recruitment come help the dgs at zeta theta columbia as they hold formal recruitment and welcome the new member class of 2010. volunteers are needed during the following times:
